June Events in Prineville Offer A Taste of Tradition

Summer brings a variety of events to Prineville. The Prineville Farmer's Market is held each Saturday in the City Plaza featuring produce, flowers, and crafts from locals. The Crooked River Roundup Rodeo, scheduled in 2009 for June 26-28, has been named one of the top 100 PRCA rodeos in the nation. This weekend also brings to town the Western Daze celebration in the Pioneer Park, the annual Prineville Rock Hound Pow Wow, and the Crooked River Roundup Rodeo Parade.

The Pari-Mutuel Horse Races July 8 - 11 promise thrilling, no-holds-barred, fast paced excitement. IronHorse is sponsoring the "IronHorse Corral", which is the area where all the horses gather pre- and post-races. We'll see you this summer in Prineville!

The Crooked River Dinner Train is Back!

A Central Oregon icon has returned with a fresh approach. The beloved Crooked River Dinner Train is hitting the rails under new management. The train will run on Saturdays with more dates being added as the summer continues. No time for a ride? The train will also be transformed into the Cougar Canyon Whistle Stop Tavern from 3 p.m. to midnight, Sunday through Thursday, while it is parked in its location off Lone Pine Road between Redmond and Terrebonne.
